NOTIFICATION

Subject : Guidelines of Tripura Health assurance Scheme for Poor (THASP) Amendment thereof.

The Governor of Tripura is pleased to amend the guidelines of THASP as follows :-

- 1.1 Hence-onward, the Standing Medical Board shall have more options in respect of identification of procedures directly related to individual referral cases by dispensing with the existing list of procedures constituting a major part of the THAPS guidelines. It is clarified here that only those cases which are not treatable in the State shall be referred by the Standing Medical Board to the empanelled/referral hospitals outside of the State.
 - 1.2 It is considered to empanel 3 (three) new hospitals namely, 1. Narayana Super Speciality Hospital, Howrah, West Bengal, 2. Calcutta Medical Research Institute (CMRI), Kolkata, 3. The Peerless Hospital, Kolkata subject to CGHS empanelment and MoU with the State Govt. All these hospitals shall provide cashless treatment. With addition of new 3 (three) hospitals, subject to fulfilment of conditions as stated above, total number of empanelled hospitals will be 14(fourteen) nos at Annexure - I.
 - 1.3. As per existing guidelines of THASP, in respect of hospitals (other than empanelled hospitals under reference) which have not entered into MoU with the State Govt. but if the patient is referred by the Standing Medical Board to them, patient will be reimbursed as per the scheme guidelines as is being done in case of referred Government employees. The list of such Govt. approved hospitals is enclosed at Annexure - II.
 - 1.4 Application for availing the benefit under Tripura Health assurance Scheme for Poor should be made available to the eligible patient party at the time of referral by the Chairman of Standing Medical Board. Standing Medical Board will send the filled up application form to the Director of Health Services for further processing the matter. Form placed at Annexure - III.
